
Publications & Equipment

The PGA of America provides support that can come through various methods:

INSTRUCTION MATERIALS GRANT: The grant will provide grips, publications and instruction equipment as needed by the program. Please use the enclosed PGA Jr. Golf Order Form to detail the materials needed for your program

The objective is to help create and maintain effective community based programs that will introduce new players to the game as well as create programs to further individual's skill development to retain players. The PGA of America is looking to support new and innovative golf initiatives. Not for Profit Organizations involved in golf development programs are encouraged to apply for a Foundation Grant. Keep in mind that the grants are only available to community-based organizations (open to the general community – not private programs).

A key PGA of America mission is to promote the Growth of the Game and it will support programs that:

- Improve the level of instruction through the use of PGA Professionals and Apprentices.
- Teach youngsters golf's valuable lessons of: Discipline, patience, honesty, concentration and ethics.
- Allow increased involvement and consistent participation (beyond clinics).
- Expose youth, women and minorities to the game and to various career opportunities within the golf industry, therefore preserving the future of the game.
- Create opportunities for unprivileged youth to experience golf.
- Bridge Junior golfers to continue to get golf instruction beyond Junior Programs.
- Introduce young adults (Ages 18-24) to golf and the life skill components.
