HALL OF FAME INVITATIONAL

The Hall of Fame Invitational is an officially sanctioned Ryder Cup event that combines two of the greatest sports in the world, golf and football, in a once of a lifetime opportunity. Participants will get the rare chance to play a classic Championship golf course with a Professional Football Hall of Famer. The event will be held during Ryder Cup week on Thursday, September 27.

Also included in the event's activities is an exclusive "draft" party that will be held on Wednesday, September 26. The event will have multiple Hall of Fame members in attendance and the participating teams will find out which Hall of Fame member they will be playing with for the event.

All proceeds from the event will benefit the PGA Foundation and the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

HALL OF FAME INVITATIONAL HOST SITE

Olympia Fields Country Club – Olympia Fields Country Club is an enduring monument to the Golden Age of American Golf, a storied era when leading industrialists teamed with legendary architects—including Ross, Tillinghast, McKenzie, Park, and Bendelow—to fashion from incomparable native landscapes what would become known as America's crown jewels of golf. Today, the English Tudor clubhouse with its signature regal clock tower is a daily reminder of the club's Olympian beginnings even as the club's acreage and membership have adjusted to more contemporary proportions.

Ranked #60 among Golf Digest's 'America's 100 Greatest Golf Courses' (2011/2012), Olympia Fields-North Course has hosted (2) US Opens, (2) PGA Championships, (5) Western Opens, a US Senior Open and is a true test of Championship proportions.
